Please write plainly; use ink. Physicians: please write the causes of death clearly and legibly. Where deaths occur without medical attendance, the Coroner must be notified. Ages, if under one year, should be stated in months, days or hours; if under one day, in hours or minutes. Do not use abbreviations. Be sure that every question is answered. Omissions cause unnecessary correspondence. Be sure that the cause of death is stated so that it can be understood by a non-medical person. Indefinite terms, such as "Heart Failure," "Kidney Trouble," "Septicemia," "Pneumonia," "Tuberculosis," "Cancer," "Senility," "Infection," "Hemorrhage," "Convulsions," "Paralysis," "Uremia," "Old Age," should be explained. Do not report mere symptoms, such as pain, weakness, convulsions, coma, etc. Name the disease causing these symptoms, and the primary cause, if known. Do not report occupations that are not dangerous or unhealthful. Statements of relationship, date and place of birth, and residence should be carefully investigated and accurately recorded. Information regarding marriage should be obtained from the person best informed. Write the name of the street and number of the house in which the deceased resided. If in a hospital or institution, write the name of the institution instead of the street and number. Write the name of the city or town in which the deceased resided. If outside the city or town limits, write RURAL and give name of county. If rural, give location sufficiently definite to locate readily. Write the name of the state in which the deceased resided. If a citizen of a foreign country, write the name of the country instead of the state. Write the name of the state in which the birth occurred. If born in a foreign country, write the name of the country instead of the state. Write the name of the state in which the deceased was born. If born in a foreign country, write the name of the country instead of the state. Write the name of the state in which the deceased was born. If born in a foreign country, write the name of the country instead of the state.
